Rechten in de bediening van een private dienst, maar niet de overdrachten van een bestuurder die is ingeschreven in de register bediening bij het bestuur dient.

It is the author's opinion that the present situation is one of the most serious in the history of our country.
The author has no desire to alarm the public, but he wishes to call attention to the fact that the present situation is one of the most serious in the history of our country.

These are general rules, since the process of research often has to conform to specific needs in the particular study and may require some modifications. Examples of general rules are given below. The following section on Expert System Development should be seen as application of such recommendations to medicine. These were compiled from a number of sources, particularly the previous work of the author.

functionality and resilience. By our terms as applied above, the present system is not sustainable because it is not self-reinforcing. The most useful policies must therefore focus on those that both reduce greenhouse gas emissions and generate an additional revenue for general revenues.

Our findings are mainly descriptive and have two fold. First, we find a very striking homogeneity across the different countries studied in their approach towards "green" fiscal instruments. Second, we observe an interesting divergence between the two main approaches used, namely, "green" taxation and "green" subsidies.
